About Home Group Notes

This is the final week of Home Group notes for this year.
Home Group Notes will resume in January, 2022.

WHO COMES TO MIND?

Who comes to mind when you think of a person who is “all in” at what they do? (e.g., a professional, an athlete, a friend)

PARABLES OF JESUS’ KINGDOM

This week, we began a series named “A King is Born.” Jesus used everyday life and common objects to reveal important truth about His kingdom. Let’s study what Jesus’ taught and consider what this means to us.

Read each of the following parables and summarize (1) what common object Jesus used as a simile or metaphor, (2) the known or basic fact about that object, and (3) what this teaches about Jesus’ kingdom.

Matthew 13:24-30, 36-43

DISCUSS TOGETHER

In the parables of the treasure and pearl, the finder “sold everything” to attain what he found. What do you think Jesus was communicating to the listeners at that time?

What do you think it means or looks like for us “to go all in” for Jesus and His kingdom?

Why is there “joy” (13:44) in those who set aside everything?
