

Todd Arnett | December 5, 2021
The King's Arrival Promised

Because God is forever faithful, encourage yourself with His promises that are yet to be fulfilled

Isaiah 9:6

Then the bridegroom will remove the veil from the bride's face and throw it over his shoulder. In this gesture the groom is making a public declaration that the government of his bride will be upon his shoulder. In other words it will be his honor and privilege to now be her protector and provider. He will protect her heart and provide all the love and affection that God created her to desire just as God has placed within us the need for love and affection from Him which He has promised to provide . . .

I believe that is what Isaiah 9:6 is conveying to us, not that the Messiah will have a difficult time with the governments of the earth, but that he will throw the veil of his bride over his shoulder signifying that he will be the protector and provider for His bride, which is us and His church. By dying on a cross and rising from the dead, He will defeat the sin that keeps us from consummating our marriage to Him and he will remove that veil from our face and throw it over his shoulder signifying that He will protect our hearts and love us for all eternity.

Chaim Bentorah, Word Study – The Government Will Be Upon His Shoulder

So, maybe another way of saying it might be that this King will "shoulder the responsibility of leading His kingdom like a _____ assumes the responsibility for his _____"

Ephesians 3:20-21

1 Corinthians 2:9-10

Isaiah 9:1-5

Isaiah 8:22

Numbers 25:3

Isaiah 9:7

Does your understanding and confidence in the character and faithfulness of God provide you the active hope _____ to not become overwhelmed by the challenges in and around your life but resolute in your belief that God will be faithful for what He's promised to you?

Now What? Because God is forever faithful, encourage yourself with His promises that are yet to be fulfilled