

Hylke Hylkema

January 26, 2020

God Loves Your Family and So Do We

God loves your “messy” family and is bringing about a story of redemption and transformation in you, in His timing, in His way, for His purposes.

Where did family come from?

Jesus’ Family Tree – Matthew 1:1-17

God loved this “messy” family and brings about an incredible story of redemption and transformation...

1. In His timing, v. 1-2

- Genesis 12
- Genesis 50:20

2. In His way, v. 3-6

- Hebrews 11:31

3. For His purposes, v. 16-17

Now What?

God loves your “messy” family and is bringing about a story of redemption and transformation in you in His timing, in His way, for His purposes.

- Romans 8:28-29

Next Steps

- Programs
- Classes
- Counseling
- Pray

Healthy Home Groups are learning to love like Jesus. If you are interested in being in a group, please apply at www.trinityonline.org.

FROM YOUR EXPERIENCE

What part of your family tree is messy?

LEARN FROM THE BIBLE

This week's core value is "God loves your family and so do we."

Read one of the following stories and answer the questions:

Read about Ruth in the Book of Ruth, or, Joseph in Genesis 37-50.

How did God bring about a story of redemption and transformation?

How was it in His timing?

How was it in His way?

How was it for His purposes?

Read Romans 8:28.

What is the promise? To whom?

How has God shown faithful love to you and your 'family?'

DISCUSS TOGETHER

How do you see God working in your family? In the past? Now?

In your Family Tree?

What will it require of us to live out this Core Value?

How is this possible?

PRAY

- For a family in your world who needs God's redemption
- For our family of Global workers
- For our High School seniors making decisions

LIFE RHYTHM

God loves people through His people. To whom could you show His love this week?