Recognize that healing begins by with the question, "Do you want to get well?"

1. Jesus didn't _____ people who needed help

John 5:1-6

Trinity Core Value

You Belong Here

You Belong Here

We value the culture of intentional acceptance that Jesus modeled. We value His kind of unconditional love that accepts brokenness and leads to healing. We value you for who you are regardless of your religious background or lack thereof, your abilities or disabilities, your ethnicity, social or economic status, and whatever it is that makes you, you. You are welcome here!

Romans 15:7, 1 Corinthians 12:27

Jesus knows what you need, but never _____ you do.

1. Do you want to get well?
2. What are you thirsty for?
3. What are you willing to die for and are you willing to die to yourself?

Dr. Mark Laaser, Becoming A Man of Valor

2. _____ will cause some to miss the power and purpose of Jesus

John 5:7-13

Jesus has come to rescue not only the sick from their diseases, but the self-righteous from their _____

Throughout the Gospel of John, you see the Jewish people divided over the meaning of these miracles. The same miracles that attracted Nicodemus to Jesus caused some of the other religious leaders to want to kill Him! . . . Our Lord's miracles were testimonies, giving evidence of His divine sonship; but they were also tests, exposing the hearts of the people. The same events that opened some eyes only made other eyes that much more blind.

Warren Wiersbe, The Bible Exposition Commentary

3. Your greatest need is the _____ of your relationship with God

John 5:14-15

Your greatest affliction that needs to be remedied is your _____ - the one that is spiritually dead until you are brought to life - "born again" - by the Spirit of God through faith in Christ

Romans 2:4 ". . . God's kindness leads you toward repentance . . . "

Just As I Am

Just as I am, without one plea,
But that Thy blood was shed for me,
And that Thou biddest me come to Thee,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come!

Now What? Recognize that healing begins by with the question, "Do you want to get well?"
