Week of March 26

I Am the Good Shepherd

The "I AM . . ." series focuses on Jesus in His own words. You can hear the message from Sunday at our website under Sermons and Media on our website, www.trinityonline.org. If you would like to be in a Home Group, sign-up online or call Julie Humphrey at (909) 335-7333, x110.

Who has been a shepherd in your life? How was this helpful? What did you retain?

Study the Bible

Read through John 10:11-18. Jesus is continuing his conversation with the misguided religious leaders (John 9). In this chapter, Jesus contrasts Himself as a spiritual shepherd with the false leaders.

If you were discussing this passage with a friend over coffee, what could you discover about Jesus?

What does He say about the sheep?

What does He say about the Father?

How should His sheep respond?

How does this passage connect with John 8:24?

Discuss Together

Our key point this week: "Because Jesus is a Good Shepherd, you can trust where He is leading you." Where else might we place our trust? What results? Why is trusting Jesus difficult?

What do we learn about Jesus and us from this passage? What should be the result of "relational knowledge" of Jesus?

How should knowing the Good Shepherd affect our attitudes and actions towards people in our worlds?

According to 1 John 3:16, how should "relational knowledge of Jesus" impact God's family?

Pray

- For our Billy Graham call-center team serving on Saturday
- For how Jesus' "I AM" words impact us
- For one another's influence in our relational worlds

Apply It This Week

Ask God to help you trust Jesus to lead you this week. Ask God to help you represent the Good Shepherd in your relational world.
