

As you're empowered by God, stand together in community against our true enemy and not each other

1. This passage is written to a _____, not to you as an individual soldier

Ephesians 6:10

The army being armored is a diverse, globally-represented community who have in _____ the most important attribute of all – Jesus as their Lord & Savior

Trinity Core Value

We pursue spiritual growth and life-change _____

2. God is both the _____ of your military strength as well as your armor

Ephesians 6:10-11

We understand from the beginning that the resources that we have are _____ to be effective in this kind of warfare

3. As in any kind of warfare, it's essential that you know your _____ and your _____

Ephesians 6:10-11

We aren't "watching" a wrestling match, but engaged in one; we are not _____ to the spiritual battle but participants

Romans 8:1, 33-34, 38-39

"He is a master of ingenious stratagems and his tactics must not be allowed to catch us unawares . . . in the context of Ephesians [his schemes] are more likely to have been deliberate attempts to destroy the unity of Christ's body (3:14-22; 4:1-16, 27) through the invasion of false doctrines and the fomenting of dissension (4:2, 21, 31, 32; 5:6)."

A. Skevington Wood, The Expositor's Bible Commentary – Ephesians

It's not as though we need to try to derive or create our unity as Jesus' Church – we only are called to _____ it

Ephesians 4:2

Now What? As you're empowered by God, stand together in community against our true enemy and not each other
