

Father,

In light of the reality of both Heaven and Hell, I pray for _____ that You would “remove his/her heart of stone and give him/her a heart of flesh,” a sensitivity and interest in who You are and his/her need for You alone.

In light of the reality of both Heaven and Hell, I pray that _____ would see how much You love him/her and that “You didn’t want Heaven without him/her, so You brought Heaven down” in the person of Jesus.

In light of the reality of both Heaven and Hell, I pray that _____ would discover that he/she was built for so much more than this life on this planet, but that the deep, eternal longings that he/she has evidences that he/she was designed for an eternity with You.

In light of the reality of both Heaven and Hell, I pray that _____ would no longer be blinded by “the god of this world” who keeps him/her from seeing the goodness of God demonstrated in the Gospel of Jesus.

In light of the reality of both Heaven and Hell, I pray that You would awaken _____ so that he/she would have the ability to admit that he/she is a sinner, to believe that Jesus is the only Savior available, and to choose to place his/her faith and trust in what Jesus has already accomplished for him/her.

In light of the reality of both Heaven and Hell, I pray that I would have an ever-deepening relationship with _____ and could be a person of influence that he/she would both see the redemptive, transforming work of Jesus in my life and hear of the opportunity to experience now and forever the abundant life that Jesus came to offer him/her.

In light of the reality of both Heaven and Hell, I pray that there would be a vast number of allies in Jesus who would surround _____ with prayer and love and witness of the great love of God demonstrated in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus.

In light of the reality of both Heaven and Hell, I pray that _____ would come to the end of himself/herself so that he/she could see that You’ve been waiting there with forgiveness and love all along, welcoming him/her into a right relationship with You now and forevermore.
